What is the best thing that I love about my work? Live a hundred lives in one life.

What is my idea of happiness? Happiness is having someone close to you who you truly love and who truly reciprocates, it is stroking an affectionate kitten, it is dancing to the music you like, it is doing everything you like to do with happiness in your heart.

What is my greatest fear? Unfortunately I am very afraid of many things. For example, I am afraid of people, in fact, in the history of humanity those who have caused the most pain to people have been and are the people themselves.

What is the trait that I most deplore in myself? When I am alone I feel intimidated, weaker, than when I have someone next to me.

Which living persons in my profession do i most admire? Rhonda Byrne is my favorite writer

What is my greatest extravagance? I have always loved too much, I repeat too much, beautiful clothes. I've spent a fortune over the course of my life, and it still shows in so many of my photographs and in many videos published on the web around the world.

On what occasion would I lie? I don't do it willingly, and if I really have to, I always try to season everything with at least a grain of truth. I lie if it is really necessary, fundamental.

The Hero's Journey

When and where was I the happiest, in my work? There were several moments. For example, when I graduated, when art work was working well, when co-workers showered me with compliments, and other things like that.

If I could, what would I change about myself? I would like to be physically stronger and more confident in myself. I would have liked to be more leaping, strong, imposing, even though I understand that I would certainly be different from how anyone who knows me knows I am.

What is my greatest achievement in work? I have had several periods with different occasions that had produced some notable successes. For example, I remember when I had become one of the most famous voices here in Europe because I was working as a Telephone Operator for some agencies that dealt with entertainment in various forms. People recognized me everywhere when they met me.

Another important moment was when I was chosen among the very few lucky ones who could participate in the famous international project dedicated to Dynamic Bilingualism. In fact, even today I am very well known for the Shows dedicated to this sector that have made me known also in many platforms of the Web. In this case I am the show-man. Naturally my Comedies, my participations in various European films, both as an actor and as an actor have given me a lot of popularity, without forgetting my enormous work on platforms such as You Tube, with all the success that came with it.

Where would I most like to live? If I could I would live in Vancouver, I have a special weakness for this city, and in general for all of Canada, which should have been my real homeland. Ironically, I was born early, passing through a house, in the middle of the night, here in Europe.

What is my most treasured possession? I know that the most precious thing is health. I have lost it more than once, and I know I am only in the world by a miracle, after having had a pulmonary embolism, accompanied by a pleural effusion and malignant tumor, all of which I

What is my most marked characteristic? Since childhood I have been a great daydreamer. I have always dreamed of a lot, giving myself moments of intimate happiness. And sometimes some of these dreams have come true over time. Thinking about it, I realize today that my life has been a whole Saturday night variety show on TV.

What is my most inspirational location, in my city? I’ve lived in many cities, so I’m a little confused in this question. But for cities that I know here in central Europe I can say that I love to get lost on the edges of the mountain towns in the beautiful valleys that make up the Alps.

What is my favorite place to eat and drink, in my city? I eat well and willingly at home, I don’t like restaurants at all.

What books influenced my life and how? I have really enjoyed many books, especially those that motivate you to keep moving forward in life, for example, Rhonda Byrne’s The Secret and The Hero. I have tried to put into practice what I have learned, although I know it is not always easy.

You Only Die Once. What music would I listen on my last day? An Italian song that I have loved madly since childhood “Chissà se va”

Who is my hero or heroine in fiction? I have never had heroes in fiction, rather I found them in American TV series.

Who are my heroes and heroines in real life? Some co-workers who have worked with me on some sets and have fascinated me for their lifestyle.

Which movie would i recommend to see once in a lifetime? The Mothman Prophecies. The fear inside

The Hero's Journey

What do the words ‘You are the storyteller of your own life’ to me? Here is a difficult question for me. I don’t think it’s always true that we write life, not entirely. Sometimes unwanted things happen, malicious people, bad advice, failed or not quite successful experiences. Sometimes events dominate us too much. Despite this, I try to do my best, if still possible.

Who is my greatest fan, sponsor, partner in crime? All the people in the world who love and follow me, for example in my You Tube channel, and then also copy my videos on many other Web platforms. I had great satisfaction.

Which people or companies would I like to work with in 2022? I love American TV series very much. I’d have to invite half of Hollywood to be happy. I think it’s a bit difficult.

What project, in 2022, am I looking forward to work on? There are many surprises in store for me, some even unknown to myself. I cannot mention everything due to the European law of the GDPR, which does not allow it.

Where can you see me or my work in 2022? In my new video productions that I publish on You Tube or other channels, and in the new works I do on film sets. I really like creating new video clips and short films with my works, comedies, photo shoots, shows and more. I hope to continue producing things that the world can still appreciate.

What do the words “Passion Never Retires” mean to me? I believe that the same passions I had since I was a child, the show in general, will accompany me until the end. I lived for that more than anything else, although it is true that I had practiced other jobs, I confess that I had never loved anyone like this.

Which creative professionals should Peter invite to tell their story? Donatella Gottardi

How can you contact me? In my you tube channel
